THE DAVIDSON-BROWNS
SHARON, GEORGIA

October 18, 1932.

Mr. Louis H. Brown,
Smithfield, Virginia.

My dear Mr. Chapman,

It would give me great pleasure to ask you to contribute for me
the necessary data on the history of the Green Mountain of your grandfather's place
no. 1995, Concord Harborway, daughter of James and Mary (Martin) Kistoway of Richmond County, Virginia, but I have so much to do with money to spend on geological research and so would ask you to give your "time" rather than your money. You see, you have no idea of the number of days you would save at times as sufficient to be sure this clue to earth.

The will of John Brown, Turner Co.,
County, Pa. I, A. B. Brown, Aug 12, 1953 and son
John B. Brown, 1954 names John, William, Richard, Thomas, John, and Mary. (see page 1) John B. Brown and Thomas Brown, Turner Co., Pa. Brown and son Brown son to the living of green mountain County and Turner Co. Pa. (see page 1) Have you any other records of Brown?

You must be anxious to get as much data as possible to the original Brown.

... family lines. I have a number of the lines traced out, but the great number of Jesse Browns. Confuses me at such a distance from original sources of data. John Brown, left Brunswick County and went to Lunenburg.
I think his son, Jesse, who in 1764
was listed as a Tithe list with Jesse, Jr.
must have been the "missing link", but I have to have records to show it. They were in Cornwall Parish of Lunenburg County in 1764 and Cornwall Parish of Lunenburg County in 1765. In thinking Jesse, Jr. must have died in Cornwall County and his son
Jesse remained to Lunenburg where he died.
Show a Jesse in the late 1700's.

Seeing you have some additional data
of a definite nature, I am,

Most sincerely,

I had a letter today from another lady in South field, who offers to make a search for me. She doesn't make a search

October 26, 1932.

My dear Mr. Hapman,
Your Ann Brown Tucker
interests me <sup>and</sup> <sup>my</sup> mother Elizabeth sounds so "Brown-ish" that I've been trying to find some link in the line from which they might have become Tuckers. Every possible group of children had an Ann and Elizabeth right on back into the 1600's.
I'm afraid I'm not holding too close.
I've had Mason Hardaway Brown m., 1745, had:-

1. Edmund Brown: died unmarried.
2. Washington Hardaway Brown <sup>b. 1797</sup> (my gr-grand father)
3. John Brown: died unmarried
4. William Brown: m. Elizabeth Maddox and had:-
  - a. Martha
  - b. Thomas
  - c. Ann: m. John Williams
  - d. Samuel
  - e. George (son by second wife, who was Elizabeth Barnett):
    1. William:- ???
    2. Ann:- ???

5. Elizabeth Brown: m. Collin Wallace.
6. Eldon Brown: m. Hugh Wallace (?)
7. Jane Brown: m. Daniel T. Hatchett
8. Jesse Brown: <sup>b. 1808</sup> m. Mary Cherry and had:

a. William	b. George
c. Samuel	d. John
e. John	f. Ida
g. Anne: m. Hamblett.	h. Ella
i. Mary
j. Lucie
k. Fred

From! Brown!!

II. THE DAVIDSON-BROWNS
SHARON, GEORGIA

You see, I haven't Jesse Brown's sisters and brothers (the Jesse who married Mason). He could easily have had a sister, Elizabeth Brown who could have married a Tucker and have become the mother of Ann Brown Tucker. I take it that this was her maiden name.

You can see from Jesse and Mason's family how he probably came and Elizabeth's father. Washington Hardaway Brown had no girls, but his sons named their daughters Ann and Elizabeth <sup>and soon</sup> took fifth down to the seventh day. My father's only sister was Ann Brown.

I'm merely beginning my research. I'm such on a patch (that you can tell), but I do enjoy finding out the various lines that go so far back into American history. — Davidsons, Chases, Merstons, Hendricks, Buels, Poole, Casons, etc., etc.

Mr. Bell is the most generous man with his help and his vast knowledge of a big section of the early knowns. Let me look into River Brown's line, and see about the Anns and Elizabeths. He has almost every record from Lancaster County. He lives in Martinsville, Virginia and has been kind enough to send me data. His line

SHARON, GEORGIA

descends from the John and mine. From the Jesse Whitcomb mentioned in the will
a John Brown, as filed in Lisenburg Court House.

Thank you for giving me the name of the Deputy Clerk in Lisenburg. He may be able to give me names and addresses of some of the Jesse Brown descendants. The Jesse and Mason ones, I mean.

There must have been numerous Jesse Browns.

I've written River Brown and I'll let you know if we find your Ann Brown linked on any of our "limbs" of the tree.

Most sincerely,

Christine W. Brown.

BROWN

David Broun or Brown of Dalkeith, Scotland was probably descended from the ancient house of Broun of Coulston. Nothing is known of this progenitor of the Maryland family beyond the facts stated by the Rev. Richard Brown that he was his father. He probaly circa 1575-1645

Had:

Richard B. circa 1610.

Rev. Richard Brown B. cir. 1610. He was ordained in 1633 (Interesting account of his life given)

Had:

Gustavus Brown. B. circa 1640/50

Gustavus Brown B. Dalkeith, Scotland, cir. 1640-50, married cir. 1670-80 Jane Mitchelson, ~~dea~~ of George Mitchelson, grandson of the house of Middleton, near Dalkeith and his wife Isabel Elphinstone, daughter of the house of the house of Soloms. (Account of the Mitchelson family given.)

Had:

Gustavus Brown B. Dalkeith 1689. D. Md. 1762.

DR. GUSTAVUS BROWN

Gustavus Brown, M. D. of "Rich Hill, Charles County, Md. and Laird of Mainside and House Byers, Roxburg, Scotland, B. Dalkeith Scotland April 10, 1689, died of apoplexy at Rich Hill, April 1762. He married first in 1710, Frances Fowke, B. Feb. 2, 1691, D. Nov. 8, 1744; daughter of Col. Gerard Fowke and his wife Sarah Burdett, of Charles County, married second in 1746/7 Margaret (Black) Boyd, widow.

Dr. Brown is supposed to have studied at the University of Edinburg, though his name does not occur in their published catalogue. In his old Prayer Book he recorded, "I came into Maryland May 1708. His first appearance in the Province was as follows:

"When a youth of 19 he became a Surgeon's mate or Surgeon on one of the royal or King's ships that came to the Colony in the Chesapeake Bay, 1708. While his ship lay anchor he went on shore, but before he could return a severe storm arose, which made it ~~impossible~~ necessary for the ship to weigh anchor and put out to sea. The young man was left with nothing but the clothes on his back. He quickly made himself known, and informed the planters of his willingness to serve them if he could be provided with instruments and medicines, leaving them to judge if he was worthy of their confidence. He began his practice of medicine in Nansemond, Md. He soon gained respect and succeeded beyond his expectations. He married into a wealthy family, made a large fortune, and wishing to lay his bones in his own loved Scotland, returned there with his family and became possessed by purchase or inheritance of the land he disposed of in his will. His wife became dissatisfied with Scotland and he returned in 1734 to Maryland, where he had years before purchased "Rich Hill" in Charles County.

Dr. Brown not only acquired an extensive and lucrative practice in Charles County, but he became a prominent man in the affairs of the County.

Mrs. Frances Brown lies buried at "Dipple" on the Potomac River in the County of Stafford, Va., on one of the estates of her son-in-law Rev. James Scott. Her tomb bears this record;

"Here lyeth the body of Frances, the wife of Dr. Gustavus Brown of Charles County, Maryland. By her he had twelve children, of whom one son and seven daughters survive her. She was a daughter of Mr. Gerard Fowke, late of Maryland, and ~~xxxxx~~ descended from the Fowkes of Gunston Hall in Staffordshire, England. She was born Feb. 2, 1691, and died much lamented on the 8th of November, 1744 in the fifty-fourth year of her ~~life~~ age.

CHURCHMAN BROWN, S. D. of "Alma Hill, Charles County, Md.
was third of William and Anne Byers, Baltimore, Baltimore, S. Baltimore Section April 10, 1833, died of apoplexy at Alma Hill, April 1761. He married first in 1713, Francis Parker, S. Nov. 4, 1811, S. Nov. 2, 1714; daughter of Col. Edward Brown and his wife Sarah Burdett, of Charles County, married second in 1715/7 Margaret (Alma) Byrd, widow.

Dr. Brown is supposed to have studied at the University of Edinburgh, though his name does not occur in their published catalogue. In his old Prayer Book he recorded,
"I came into Maryland May 1706. His first appearance in the province was as follows:

"When a youth of 19 he became a surgeon's mate on board one of the royal or King's ships. On 3 came to the colony in the Chesapeake Bay, 1706. While his ship lay anchored west of the shore, but before he could return a severe wind arose, which made it impossible to return and the ship to weigh anchor and put out to sea. The young man was left with nothing but the clothes on his back. He quickly made himself known, and informed the members of his village that he would like to be provided with instruments and medicines, leaving them to judge if he was worthy of their confidence. He came to the province of Maryland in 1706, and he soon gained respect and a good reputation.

FOWKE

Col Gerard Fowke was born Stafford, England, the son of Roger Fowke and his wife Mary -----, of Gunston Hall, Stafford England; died in Virginia 1669. His wife was Ann either the daughter or widow of ---- Chandler of Port Tobacco, Md.

He was Burgess for Westmoreland County, Va. in 1663. The Colonial Virginia Register, by Stenard. Page 77.

He removed to Charles County, Md. in 1664, locating at the head of Pt. Tobacco Creek. Jan. 2, 1665, Col. Gerrard Fowke was unanimously elected by the Maryland Assembly Burgess for ~~ShuthezzBuxxxxxx~~ for Charles County and was made Justice for the said County, Oct. 22, 1667. He probably held this office until he died. His name disappears from the Maryland Archives in 1669

Argall Pedigree- Thomas Argall, of St. Faith-the-Virgin, London, esquire, to whom the Manor of Walthamstow was granted in 1553, was an officer of court in 1559. He died in 1563. By his wife Margaret, daughter of John Tallakarne of Cornwall (who remarried in June, 1564, Sir Giles Allington, of Horseheath, Cambridgeshire), he had five sons and one daughter, namely: Richard, (see hereafter), Lawrence, John, Rowland, Gaberell, and Anne.

Anne Argall married, first Thomas Sisley, of Essex; secondly, Augustine Steward, of London, esquire.

Richard Argall, the eldest son, of East Sutton in County Kent, esquire, married twice; the name of his first wife is not known to me. His second wife was Mary, daughter of Sir Reginald St. John, of St. John's, Kent. He died in 1588, leaving five sons and six daughters living, by his second wife, namely:--

1. Thomas Argall, who, with his brother Reginald, were the contestants to the challenge sent by Sir John Scott to Lord Burghley, in April, 1590; which Thomas died in 1605, s. p./

Reginald Argall, of Lincoln's Inn, Middlesex, gent., in 1599 Anne, widow of William Rowe (uncle to Sir Thomas Walthamstow, County Essex, esquire, and daughter of John Rowe, esquire, of Chesham Boys in Buckinghamshire. This Anne was knighted at Hampton Court, August 17, 1606, and died in 1612, s.p.

3. John Argall, of Colchester.

4. Richard Argall. (I take this to be the person of the name "noted in the reign of James I for an excellent divine poet.")

5. Samuel Argall.

1. Elizabeth Argall married Sir Edward Filmore, of East Sutton in Kent, knight.

2. Margaret Argall married Edmund Randolph of Aylesford in Kent, esquire.

3. Mary Argall married Raynold Kempe, of Wye in Kent, esquire.

4. Catherine Argall married Randolphe Bathurst, of Horton in Kent, esquire.

5. Jane Argall married Paul Flettewood, of Roshall in Lancashire, esquire.

6. Sara Argall, sixth daughter.

After the death of Richard Argall in 1588, his widow (Sir Samuel Argall's mother) married Laurence Washington, of Maidstone, Kent, esq (his second wife), and died in 1605. Mr. Washington, who survived her, dying in 1619, was register of the High Court of Chancery. He was the great uncle of the Rev. Laurence Washington, whose son John was the emigrant ancestor of the "Father of his country."

The following monumental inscriptions from East Sutton Church are illustrative of the foregoing pedigree.

"Richard Argall of East Sutton in the County of Kent Esq., deceased anno Domini, 1588, leaving 5 sons and 6 daughters living.
